

Programming

Stay informed on what's going on in the county, learn about Virginia agriculture and NASA on our cable channels – Comcast 98 and Verizon 28. Programming was launched this year, and includes episodes of NASAX, Real Virginia, The Folklorist, as well as original programs produced by the Department of Communications and Media. Many of these videos can be found on the county's social media sites, YouTube or in the Library's digital collection under Chesterfield Now or Special Edition.

Learn more about local government by attending the Government Citizens Academy, which began in May 2017.

Sign up for the county's weekly e-newsletter, Weekly Update, at www.chesterfield.gov/enews

Look for the county on Facebook and Twitter

Chesterfield County Government

Facebook: ChesterfieldVA

Twitter: @ChesterfieldVA

For a list of all the departments who use social media, visit <http://www.chesterfield.gov/newsroom/socialmedia/>.

Priorities for FY18

On April 26, 2017, the Board of Supervisors adopted the FY18 budget. See priorities and highlights for the upcoming year, and check out the adopted FY17-FY21 Capital Improvement Plan.

Chesterfield County Department of Communications and Media
P.O. Box 40
Chesterfield, VA 23832
804-748-1000
cm@chesterfield.gov

Chesterfield
NOW

Special Edition

Government Citizens Academy

Open Government

Chesterfield County is committed to being transparent. From purchasing and financial information to building permits and public meetings, the county's open government page provides access to detailed information about your local government.

The Department of Communications and Media received a 2017 Gold Hermes Creative award for its electronic 2016 Annual Report from the Association of Marketing and Communication Professionals.